Reading Recovery & Early Literacy Learning Conference

Presented by the Canadian Institute of Reading Recovery

April 20th – 21st, 2017

Sheraton Parkway Toronto North
Richmond Hill, Ontario, Canada

The CIRR National Conference offers an outstanding professional development experience for teachers, principals and senior administrators interested in expanding common understandings and effective practices to maximize student learning and prevent failure.

Keynote Speaker

Lori Jamison

Lori Jamison is an internationally recognized teacher, author, consultant and speaker.

With her background as a classroom teacher, K-12 literacy consultant and reading assessment specialist for a district of 64 schools, Lori brings a unique set of skills to staff development.

Lori had the amazing opportunity to serve on the Board of Directors of the International Reading (Literacy) Association and to volunteer with the Language to Literacy Program in Belize. She is currently the Education Director for High Interest Publishing and creator of the weekly HIP TIPS.

The author of many professional resources for teachers (as Lori Jamison Rog), Lori has consulted with schools and districts across North America and is a popular speaker at conferences and professional development events from Nova Scotia to New Zealand.
