

Mind Dump

Select a story from the table and use the large paper to write down all of the ways you could build off of this story that reinforce literacy through play. This might include but not limited to play materials, play ideas, props, integrating words into the play, dramatic play areas, outdoor play ideas, brainstorming with the children, fieldtrips etc.

